

Tiffany Manuel, PhD

Public Will-Building Expert.
Strategist & Cross-Sector Leader.

Dr. Tiffany Manuel is an expert in public will building and leveraging data to do so. She is a dynamic speaker, thought leader, and writer on the issues of community development, social change and cross-sector partnerships. Trained as a social scientist, she is committed to building the capacity of changemakers and leaders to grow their social impact. She has worked to expand opportunity for low-income workers, families and communities through 25+ years of professional and volunteer experience spanning the private and non-profit sectors, government and academia. She is the primary architect of the Opportunity360 platform, with more than 100k+ users in the community development field, it remains the most comprehensive data platform for practitioners looking to advance systems change and population outcomes. Tiffany is passionate about translating the insights harvested from this work to increase opportunities for public deliberation and public will-building around the issues of poverty, inequality and social exclusion. Tiffany holds doctorate and master's degrees in public policy from the University of Massachusetts Boston, a master's degree in political science from Purdue University and a bachelor's degree from the University of Chicago.
